COMMUTATION TICKETS

(Common and Uncommon)

In our business it is not a bad idea to rustle through the files from time to time and see what has come up in the last year and years, in ticket or check forms for this or that purpose. Aside of the fact that conditions underlying specific requirements may vary, the approach of those who seek the solution to certain problems is apt to differ. As a result one is apt to see a good deal of variation in the forms adopted.

This time we looked for commutation tickets, common ones and not so common ones. A fair assortment is shown on the following pages. They are picked at random, without attempt at bringing forth a fully complete picture of what might conceivably be in use. The variety truly can be very great, and many forms beyond those shown can be imagined as capable of filling commutation ticket needs.

The most common forms no doubt are the strip- and book-type tickets that appear on page 2. Consecutively numbered by strips or books, printed to be good on a system or in specific zones, they are designed to be surrendered for each ride. Hence they provide the means for ride audit, when needed.

Page 3 carries three limited ride school tickets, designed for simple punch-out for each ride taken.

Page 4 shows two commutation tickets, capable of being issued for a choice of zones. They are designed for punch-out, and each is provided with an audit section, appearing as a separate unit for the ticket on the left, but attached in the case of the unit on the right.

On No. 5 we see a ticket, designed for separate punch-out of each ride for the sections of the route that are located in two different states. It also uses a novel tear-off method for indicating the valid zone for the ticket. The tear-off, at the same time, leaves attached to the audit stub, upon issuance, clear indication of the ticket value sold.

Page 6 carries commutation tickets for issuance in book form. The ticket in the center shows below it the audit leaf, commonly used to record the sale of each book.
