“The Prayer Perfect”

*DEAR Lord! kind Lord!
Gracious Lord! I pray
Thou wilt look on all I love
Tenderly today!
Weed their hearts of weariness;
Scatter every care
Down a wake of angel-wings
Winnowing the air.*

*Bring unto the sorrowing
All release from pain;
Let the lips of laughter
Overflow again;
And with all the needy
O divide, I pray,
This vast treasure of content
That is mine today!*

Everybody's Night

First of This Season's Programs at the Club House—Should Test the Capacity of the Hall

Arrangements have been made for the first Company Night of the season—Wednesday, November 21st at the Club-house Hall,—and a program has been arranged which ought to pack the auditorium to its capacity. The committee has been fortunate in securing as the star of the evening Mr. Charles N. Wheeler, a widely known newspaper man who as reporter, war correspondent and special writer, occupies a conspicuous position in the newspaper world. For the last two years, he has been identified with the management of the Studebaker Utility properties and, therefore, has a perfect understanding of and sympathy with the accomplishments of our great industry.

Since Mr. Wheeler's entry into the utility field, he has devoted part of his time to a study of the remarkable discoveries in the research laboratories of the great electrical corporations; and in their disclosure of the secrets of nature and the effect these may have on the lives of this and coming generations, Mr. Wheeler has found a thrill that exceeds in intensity anything in his world-wide experience as a reporter. Inasmuch as he has the happy faculty of treating his subject in a popular way, he is able to carry his audience with him into a fairyland of scientific marvels and give them a glimpse of a new and astounding world.

The Surface Lines during the last year or so have been developing a series of moving pictures in which the hazards of modern traffic have been presented in a really sensational way, the purpose being to impress both automobile drivers and pedestrians with the importance of care and caution in moving about on public streets. The results of these studies which were prepared under the direction of Mr. Crews of our Public Relations Department and Mr. Pasche of the Accident Prevention Department, were so satisfactory that the American Electric Railway Association secured permission to reproduce the films and exhibit them all over the country in the interest of public safety. While these films have been shown at hundreds of clubs, school and community organization meetings, they never have been shown in the Surface Lines hall to our members and employees. This will be the first opportunity, therefore, of seeing what happens when a heedless automobilist drives his car between two Surface Lines cars moving in opposite directions. And it is needless to say that what happens is plenty! Collisions between automobiles and between automobiles and our cars, are presented in a manner that will make you sit up on the edge of your chair and wonder just how the participants in the wrecks escaped with their lives. This film with some others relating particularly to the Surface Lines activities will be introduced by Mr. Pasche, whose work in Accident Prevention has been particularly successful.

There will be incidental music which, with the other features, will provide a program of surpassing interest to everybody. The entertainment is open to all employees of all the departments of the Surface Lines and it will only be necessary to show your monthly ticket or your badge to secure admission.

Draw a ring around this date on your calendar, and as there will be no reserved seats, it will be found desirable to be on hand early. The formal program will start promptly at 8 o'clock.

By WILLIAM PASCHE

Supervisor, Accident Prevention

Blue Island-Lawndale, Division No. 6, continues to lead in the Accident Prevention Contest, closely followed by Division-Armitage, Division No. 9. These two Divisions have been holding first and second places in the Contest for the entire year. This fact should not make them over-confident or believe that they cannot be forced out of the proud positions they now hold because a bad month or a little let-up on their part together with a good month for any other one Division might change the standings and give us a new leader. Division No. 4, Sixty-Ninth, is now in third place close on the heels of Division No. 9, and followed in fourth place by Lincoln Depot, Division No. 11, last year's winner. Both of these Divisions have slowly but surely improved their positions in the Contest until now they both are so close to the leaders that either one of them can go into the lead at any time.

Accidents in total numbers are now showing a slight decrease when compared with the figures of 1927, but the decrease is so small that it is safe to say that we are about even with last year's record. The motormen have been showing consistent decreases in vehicle collisions and in all other classes of accidents that have to do with the motormen's operation of street cars.

If the motormen were not showing a decrease in accidents we would now be showing a total increase because the conductors are having an increase in Boarding and Alighting accidents. We have said in previous articles that Boarding and Alighting accidents can be reduced by a little more alertness on the part of conductors. Alertness on the part of conductors will prevent many accidents which now occur at the rear end of cars. Calling of streets, being courteous and looking out alongside of the car before giving the signal to proceed will surely have its effect.

A source of danger for Boarding accidents is starting from the terminal with the conductor giving the signal to go from the front platform or from the ground while standing near or at the front of car. Many times at terminals intending passengers who are coming up from the rear are left because the conductor was out of position and did not see them. It also sometimes happens that the intending passenger runs for the car, grabs the last grab handle and is thrown to the street. We also receive some complaints from patrons because of this kind of indifference.

If, when arriving at the terminal, your leader is there waiting for his time to leave you have a perfect right to be on the ground and smoke if you wish, but when your leader leaves and your car pulls over the crossover taking the place of the leader whose car has just left, you should and must consider your car en route. Your place then is on the rear platform and you should remain there unless some emergency arises which calls you to another part of the car. Remember also that a desire to talk with the motorman is not an emergency.

In some instances cars leave the terminals without the seats being turned. To turn the seats is part of your job and not the passengers.

In flagging your car across a railroad grade crossing it is not enough to just go to the first rail, but you must go to the center of the crossing or further if necessary, then look both ways, and toward the rear of the car for boarding and alighting passengers before giving the signal to the motorman to come ahead. It is the motorman's duty not to cross unless the conductor has flagged crossing correctly. When the motorman is satisfied that the crossing has been properly flagged he may proceed but only with such care that an accident will not occur.

Newspapers strewn along the floor of the car are also a hazard and should be picked up and put under the long seats, remembering at the same time that while the car is en route the conductor should not be reading the paper.

VAUDEVILLE FAVORITES

Three Daughters of an Old Time Employee on the Professional Stage

William Keenan, who for more than forty years, has been employed by the Surface Lines and is now at 69th and Ashland, has the unusual distinction of being the father of three beautiful daughters who have become favorites to vaudeville audiences in various parts of the country. Under the professional name of the "Keena Sisters," Frances, Florence and Loretta have been featured in some of the Broadway revues, and after three years on the vaudeville circuit, have been secured by the Balaban & Katz management for a tour of their picture houses, where they will be featured. Their Chicago engagement began October 27 at the Oriental Theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Keenan, who reside at 7115 Michigan Avenue, are justly proud of this trio of professional entertainers.

Sizing up the complaints, we find that the number of discourtesy compaints for any one month were never lower than in September, 1928, when they totalled 103. This applies to the seventeen months during which all of us in our various positions have been striving to be more courteous to our passenger patrons. Courtesy is an essential that cannot be shown by hanging a card around a man's neck (as a blind supplicant carries a placard announcing that he is unable to see) proclaiming to the world in general and his passengers in particular, that he is courteous. Courtesy can only be demonstrated by kindly and considerate acts.

Here Is an Old-Time Limits Wrecking Crew, Twenty-five Years Ago. Including Morrie E. Peterson, Carl Peterson, Jules Barry, George Capper and E. Gustafson.

A passenger who, for some unknown reason, has passed his street, rushes to the platform and probably incensed at himself for having allowed this to happen may irritably insist that the car be stopped at once—anywhere—he doesn't care, so that he can alight. Such a passenger should be courteously and quietly told of the danger to himself and following traffic occasioned by the car making a stop in an unaccustomed place. He will readily see the point.

Don't bark at him: "Why don't you do your sleeping at home?" or "Why don't you stay awake when you are on a street car?" Either of these remarks is just as inflammable as pouring kerosene into the old kitchen stove and the explosion is apt to be just as violent. Don't do either.

"Passing up" complaints, some of which were not charged to either the trainman or the depot, when it was shown that it was the first car following a blockade and was closely followed by another, number 54. The 54 complaints were as distinctly chargeable as they were a breach of faith both with the public and the company. Street cars are on the streets for the sole purpose of transporting people to and from their destination. Passing up a prospective passenger is comparable to a storekeeper who slams his door in your face and shouts through the glass, "Go and buy your stuff somewhere else." How many more times would you give him an opportunity to do that? You would walk a quarter or even a half mile to patronize a competitor. A satisfied passenger is always a booster.

Transfer complaints, amounting to 43 over the entire system for a month can not be considered as a bad record, but it must be remembered that the entire 43 were chargeable after a thorough investigation of each case.

Quick starting, dangerous at all times to life and limb, added another depot to its column. Blue Island Depot which for four months did not have a quick starting complaint charged to it, can no longer boast of that distinction, having had two such complaints in September. To Noble Depot alone now rests the distinction of having had none of these dangerous complaints this year.

The total number of complaints numbering 232, is also the lowest for any of the seventeen months, and now we will soon swing into the increased holiday riding. Last year, during the peak of the holiday rush, when for four days we operated every one of our 3,639 cars, our courtesy record was better than in the preceeding months. If the other fellow is a crank, let him enjoy that distinction, other passengers are quick to see who the real gentleman is and appreciate the fact.

Let's be courteous without having to paint it on our chests.

Tommy, very sleepy, was saying his prayers.

"Now I lay me down to sleep. I pray the Lord my soul to keep—

"If," his mother prompted.

"If he hollers, let him go, eeny, meeny, miny, mo!"

FOREMEN CONFERENCES

Mr. A. F. Dodge was with the Shops & Equipment Department from June 15th to September 15th, devoting his entire time to the six Foremen Conference groups, as a continuation of the work carried on by the department for the past few years. In addition to the group pictured above, there were three other car-house groups, one each for the Night Foremen, Assistant Day and Assistant Night Foremen, and two shop groups, one for the South and one for the West Shops. These conferences are devoted to a discussion of topics of interest of either a practical or educational nature and are so arranged that meetings are held regularly according to schedule.

With the exception of the past summer season these meetings are conducted under the leadership of W. C. Wheeler, Engineer of Equipment, and the subjects outlined for discussion for the coming year include: Company Organization and Functions; Departmental Organization and Duties, such as Transportation, Electrical, Purchases & Stores, etc.; Departmental Accounting (Shops & Equipment Dept.); Departmental Engineering (Shops & Equipment Dept.).

This is the first time that Cottage Grove Carhouse has won the Pull-In Flag, which was accomplished by operating their increase of 54.8 per cent over last month. Seventy-seventh Street still holds second place, and indications at this time are that the South Division is going to hold on to the Flag for a few months.

The carhouse making the greatest percent increase this month was Noble, being 73.9 per cent, also moving up to 12th place from 16th last month. Other carhouses making creditable records were North, who moved from 12th place last month to 5th this month; Lawndale from 10th to 6th, and Devon from 11th to 7th.

Twenty-three (23) zero days was the record for the month, and was made by Limits Carhouse.

It will also be noted that every carhouse operated their cars over 21,000 miles per pull-in, and the average mileage for the system was 30,735, an increase of 15.5 per cent over the preceding month.

Below are the individual records:

PERSONNEL CHANGES

C. C. Cricks Promoted to Division Superintendent—Harry Hooper Becomes Assistant

C. C. Cricks, who started with the Chicago City Railway Company thirty years ago and who, for the last five years, has been an Assistant Division Superintendent at Cottage Grove, was made Division Superintendent by a General order dated October 16. He succeeds Division Superintendent W. A. Bessette, who was transferred from the First to the Third Division to fill the vacancy at 77th caused by the death of Division Superintendent C. E. Jones. Mr. Cricks came to Chicago in the Spring of 1898 and in June of that year started as a conductor at the old Wallace Street Depot of the South Side Company. In the Fall of that year, he was transferred to 69th Street and after seven years of service on the rear platform, was appointed supervisor and transferred to Cottage Grove in 1906 on the day that the electric cars were started on that line. SURFACE SERVICE has been fortunate in getting two pictures of Mr. Cricks, one taken recently and the other shortly after he was employed as a conductor. It is easy to understand why Mr. Cricks was as popular in his earlier experience as he was in later years.

The same general order moved Harry T. Hooper from the Department of Accident Prevention and promoted him to the position of Assistant Division Superintendent at Cottage Grove to assist Mr. Cricks. While the downtown office is sorry to lose his smiling face, he has the sincere good wishes of all of his associates who are confident that he will make good in his new field of activity.

GOING AFTER WITNESSES

North Avenue Regains the Lead—Burnside Shoots Up From Seventh to Second Place

After having trailed in second place for two months, North Avenue again moved up into first position with a score of 5.12. The surprise of the September report from the Department of Accident Investigation came in Burnside's advance from seventh place to second, its score of 4.85 being an increase of one passenger per accident. Elston-Noble, which has consistently held an average of better than five for a number of months, dropped more than one witness per accident and fell into third position. There are still five divisions with averages better than four and the average for the system still runs above four. The Diversey bus operators were not quite as active in securing witnesses as they have been heretofore, and they dropped to 1.14 per accident.

The following table gives the standard of the respective stations for June to September, inclusive:

A New Yorker, on a rainy day, hurrying up from the subway, slipped on a brush left by a street-cleaner and fell right into a puddle. As he got up, with fire in his eye, he saw in front of him a tooth paste advertisement—"Comes out of the tube and lays flat on the brush."

Forgetful Passengers

Many Patrons Made Happy by Recovery of Lost Articles—A Roll of Honor

While there is a traveling public it seems inevitable that there will be forgetful passengers. The duty of rendering a definite service to these, our customers in distress, is a regular part of the routine of our employes who come in direct contact with the public. Unfortunately for the loser, we are not always the finder of all goods left on the cars; but when we are able to uphold our reputation for honesty and integrity, this service is rendered by the rank and file of the Surface Lines as a matter of personal pride and satisfaction. The records show that much actual cash and many valuables have been saved to the riding public of Chicago through the alertness and honesty of its wide-awake employes. The following gives some idea of what this means during an average month, showing articles turned in during July, 1928:

Eighty-six pocketbooks containing $592.62 in currency, numerous brief cases, wrist watches, umbrellas, raincoats, fur neck pieces, eyeglasses, bathing suits, boxes of cigars, a bushel of apples, a live chicken, dressed chicken, dressed goose, camping and fishing outfits, etc.

Articles of exceptional value were turned in by the following:

Division Superintendent S. G. Irvine, 69th Street; Conductors George P. Murphy, Limits; G. Enger, Armitage; D. Mulvihill, Kedzie; F. Maines, Kedzie; H. McGowan, Blue Island; P. F. Gerard, 69th Street; F. E. Riecke, 77th Street, and J. P. Weber, 77th Street.

The following is a list with their badge numbers of those who found and turned in pocketbooks containing various amounts over one dollar, watches, jewelry and other valuables—over 200 names—during July, 1928:

HEY! HEY! ROLLER SKATERS!

Here's a Big Night for You at Madison Gardens—Fun and Prizes

Through the courtesy of the Madison Gardens Roller Rink management, arrangements have again been made for a Roller Skating Party. Monday evening, November 19th, has been set aside for Surface Lines' employees, their friends and families, exclusively. Mr. C. H. Evenson, who has agreed to act as Chairman of this occasion, suggests that we show our appreciation to the Madison Gardens management by as many as possible attending and he assures us that there will be plenty of fun and prizes. Admission by 62-ride ticket or badge card.

"Well, what are you looking for now?" old Diogenes was asked.

"I'm trying to locate a family that won't insist on buying things if the old man thinks they can't afford them."

We take pleasure in reporting that little Joe Peavey, who swallowed a nickel last week, has entirely recovered from his financial difficulties. —Barrie Payne, Associated Editors, (Chicago).

CHARLES EDWARD JONES

Born September 24, 1859, Died October 6, 1928

Mr. Jones was born on a farm at Richmond, Indiana, and spent the early years of his life on the farm, coming to Chicago in 1879 and obtaining employment as a fireman with the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad. He remained in that position until February 1, 1882, when he entered the service of the Chicago City Railway Company as gripman.

Strict observance of his duties soon gained him promotion to the position of starter. He then continued upward as Supervisor, Assistant Division Superintendent, and Division Superintendent, and on May 25, 1921, he was appointed Assistant Superintendent of Transportation. He filled this position capably until ill health, on October 1, 1925, forced his return to 77th Street Depot as Division Superintendent.

Mr. Jones was the last to pass away in a family consisting of three sisters and two brothers. He was married on May 14, 1884, to Miss Margaret Lund, who survives him.

A touching last tribute to a man, loved and respected by all who knew him, was presented by several hundred trainmen of 77th Street Depot, who stood on either side of Vincennes Avenue with bared heads as the funeral procession passed on the way to Mount Greenwood Cemetery.

Patrick H. Grady, Oldest Employee, Passes

The oldest employee of the company, Patrick H. Grady, passed away October 23, 1928.

Mr. Grady was born in Chesterton, Indiana, on January 25, 1840, and entered the employ of the Chicago City Railway Company in 1862. With the exception of a period when he served as Muleteer in the Civil War under General Phil Sherman, Mr. Grady worked continuously for the company consecutively as a Feed Chopper, Horse Car Driver, Motorman and Watchman.

Mr. Grady has told with a droll humor many incidents of the pioneer days of street railroad-ing; the hard winters when they fought snow with horse-drawn plows that could not make the trips fast enough to keep the streets open, and break-downs on the track which he passed by pulling around with his horse car.

He had been confined by a broken leg since July 5th of this year, and, when seen about three weeks ago, his eyes twinkled as he said, "I don't know how in the world I slipped, I must be getting old." So the stout old heart that carried him through all of the turbulent days of the Civil War, the Chicago Fire and the daily trials of the early days, never failed him to the very last.

Mr. Grady is survived by a son and two daughters, to whom we extend our heartfelt sympathy in their bereavement.

THANKSGIVING

The Surface Lines' family has every reason to join most heartily in the observance of this National holiday. This has been a year of progress and accomplishment. We have led the whole country in the volume of business; the management, confronted by difficulties and conditions of the most unusual character, has carried on with undaunted spirit, permitting nothing to stand in the way of its obligations to the public; we have improved the character of our service, both in operation and equipment; the efforts of our Department of Accident Prevention have been backed up by the rank and file with such success that there has been a substantial reduction in the number of accidents, and many members of our track gangs, whose eyes have been saved from destruction by the protective goggles, have special reasons for gratitude; we all enjoy the comfortable security afforded by group insurance; there has been a marked development of the friendly interdepartmental relations that count so heavily in effective team-work; there also has been a demonstration of personal interest in carrying out the policies of the management as reflected in the hundreds of letters of commendation from observing patrons. In brief, we find reason for gratitude in our definite progress toward making the Surface Lines the best as well as the greatest system in the world.

GIVE THEM LIGHTS

Our cars were recently equipped with a new and improved electric bulb which provided much better illumination. The additional expense involved in the substitution of the new lamps was more than justified by the appreciative reaction of our patrons. The illumination not only gave great satisfaction to those who read while they ride, but made the brightly lighted cars attractive and inviting.

With this equipment we shall be able to add immeasurably to the comfort of our patrons during the dark mornings and early evenings of the Fall and Winter, and the train crews who make a special effort to have the lights on at such times will be making friends for themselves and the management.

COMPANY NIGHT

Wednesday night, Nov. 21, has been set aside at the Club House for the first program of the season of 1928-29. A program has been prepared that will appeal to everybody. Mr. Charles N. Wheeler, a newspaper man of international reputation, who talks as informally, convincingly and entertainingly as he writes, will tell us what he believes to be the greatest story in his experience. And there will be presented for the first time to our members a number of moving pictures prepared under the direction of our own people that have created a country-wide interest and are being shown in all large cities by the American Electric Railway Association. Our own Mr. Pasche, who had much to do with the production of the most sensational of the films, will talk to us briefly about what we have been able to accomplish in the way of safety for the public and our own employees. The entertainment will be open to all employees of all Departments and a badge or monthly ticket will secure admission.

"Hurrah," shouted Sammy, as he danced in from school. "At last I got 100 in my studies."

"Fine!" said his mother. "What study did you get 100 in?"

"I said 'studies,' not 'study,'" said Sammy. "Sixty in readin' and forty in spellin'."

Personal Tributes

Unsolicited Commendation of Our Trainmen and Service from Observing and Appreciative Patrons

On Saturday, October 13th the Loop of Chicago was so crowded as to remind one of the vast multitude that assembled for the Army and Navy Game or the Dempsey-Tunney fight. Thousands of automobiles passed through the loop during the afternoon and evening, with pedestrians fighting their way to get across the streets, dodging between street cars and automobiles in an effort to get home.

During this great excitement the Chicago Surface Lines was again called upon to carry the greatest percentage of these people home, and again they responded to the call, as they always have and pushed every car available into service, for the relief of those homeward bound. The revenue passengers that day numbered 2,815,105. Conductors, Motormen, Supervisors, and, in fact, all employes are to be commended for their very efficient work in connection with helping out at this time.

The writer of this little message stood at the corner of Washington and State streets for about an hour, observing every car that passed. Mothers with children; girls and boys had to stand for considerable time waiting for a car with enough room for them to get on. I noticed that while each car had persons hanging on the step, the front part of the car was almost empty. Many conductors failed to ask the passengers to step forward in the car in order to help render the maximum amount of service at the time when it was most needed. This is an important matter and I feel that if every conductor who reads this will pay special attention to the loading in the forward part of his car the next time an unusual crowd gathers in the loop, we will be able to improve greatly our already wonderful service.

A Foreign Visitor's View

Miss Johanna Ulbrik, a visitor from Switzerland wrote to The Daily News of this city that she was much impressed by the courtesy of Surface Lines employes. She said: "It is rather difficult for a total stranger to find his way about here in Chicago, but I found the street-car conductors most helpful, always patient and anxious to direct one. In spite of my imperfect English and somber dress, I always received a clear description of where to change cars and what to do. When I seemed confused the conductor motioned me to a seat near him and called to me the right time and place to change cars."

Motorman W. W. Rye of Cottage Grove Wins a Friend

Gentlemen—Today, I was running for a car at 111th and Cottage Grove and I want to tell you how I appreciate having Motorman No. 11903 wait a second or two for me. He was very pleasant about it too. I ride on the surface cars almost every day and if I had time I could tell you almost every day of a courteous act I have seen conductor or motorman do. Once in a while there is a man all out of sorts but sometimes I don't blame them. I ride mostly from 111th and Cottage Grove but find the other lines have pleasant trainmen, too.

I am just one of the public who appreciates the street cars.

Mr. C. E. Brandenburg, 808 North Lawler avenue, wishes to express his gratitude to Conductor Joseph O'Leary, badge No. 11866, and Motorman Louis Miller, badge No. 2647, of North avenue, for their thoughtfulness and assistance to him.

Motorman Burtus H. Rood, badge No. 5081, of Devon, is praised by Mr. M. K. Dixon, 189 West Madison street, for the smooth operation of his car. His note states that it is a pleasure to ride with such a motorman and congratulates the management on having him in the service.

Mr. Elmer C. Harland, 738 Euclid avenue, Glen Ellyn, highly compliments Motorman Floyd A. Brooks, badge No. 6107, of North avenue, for his pleasant reminder to "Watch the Autos"—a friendly warning to alighting passengers.

Miss Jennie R. Gourley, 5520 Iowa street, says of Motorman Frank Dreckman, badge No. 7865, of North avenue: "His perfect manipulation of the brakes of his car makes riding with him a pleasure." Motorman Dreckman is also commended for his unfailing courtesy to passengers.

Conductor Harry W. Hansen, badge No. 9286, of Burnside, is the recipient of a congratulatory letter from Mrs. Herbert W. Swanson, 13427 Burley avenue, who inadvertently handed the conductor a five dollar bill assuming that it was a one. She says she never would have missed it and when Conductor Hansen brought it to her attention she very emphatically said that she handed him a one dollar bill. It took argument and an examination of her purse to convince her.

Mr. Zephyr Acrel, 5622 Lake Park avenue, commends Supervisor S. E. Turley, of Cottage Grove, stationed at 56th and Lake Park avenue, for finding his money and expresses his sincere thanks for his honesty and kindness.

She appreciates the courteous and personal attention she received.

Mr. Christ Licht, 4821-23 West Chicago avenue, says a good word for Supervisor Charles J. Doherty, of the Central District. Mrs. Licht became separated from her two children while boarding a crowded street car, and appealed to Supervisor Doherty through whose assistance the children were located. Both Mr. and Mrs. Licht wish to express their appreciation for this kindly act.

POWER SAVING IN WINTER

Not So Easy But It Can Be Done by Proper Operating Methods

The cold wintry days accompanied by snow, low temperatures and sleet, together with bad rails, air freezing and other interferences resulting in congestion are rapidly approaching. These natural conditions are bound to come and it logically follows that the power necessary to operate a car will increase.

In the warmer months of the year the power requirements are the lowest. As the cold months of fall and winter approach, the demand will be greater as compared with those of the spring and summer months. Cold weather with its disturbances naturally affects all car operation and transportation activities. It is, therefore, most important that all the motormen and conductors of this system apply the very best methods of good car operation throughout this period of the year, in order that the business of power saving may be maintained.

By the strict adherence to and practice of the rules of good car operation many of the troubles causing unnecessary tie-ups and the disarrangement of the schedules may be avoided, as these are often traced to the failure of some part of the equipment, due to being repeatedly subjected to abuse beyond its limits.

A car crew knowing and practicing the rules of good car operation and good judgment, barring unforeseen accidents may be relied upon to bring the car in on time and in good operating condition in bad as well as fair weather.

The following table has been arranged for the benefit of our motormen and shows the standing of each Depot on the basis of the greatest gain in Power Saving when compared with the first operation period of the Depot, the per cent column showing the amount, thus determining the rank of the Depot on this system:

Division—	September	Per Cent Saving or Loss
Cottage Grove	1	5.55
Armitage	2	5.29
Lincoln	3	4.83
Burnside	4	4.17
Lawndale	5	2.59

Oh! I See

Professor—Your pneumatic contrivance has ceased to function.

Bus Driver—Er—What?

Professor—I say, your tubular air container has lost it rotundity.

Bus Driver—I don't quite—

Professor—The cylindrical apparatus which supports your vehicle is no longer inflated.

Bus Driver—But—

Professor—The elastic fabric surrounding the circular frame whose successive revolutions bear you onward in space, has not retained its pristine roundness.

Small Boy—Hey, Mister, you got a flat tire.

Departments and Divisions

Engineering

The Engineering Bowling Team is leading the Gold Coast League at the present writing with the veteran Alexander their heavy pin getter.

R. J. Rumatz of the Track Department was chairman of the Halloween party, given at the club house on the night of October 27th. The party was a great success due to Rudy's able management.

Tom McCarthy is back at work after a hard siege with a collection of carbuncles on the back of his neck. Tom looks a little pale and worn, but his voice is as strong as ever.

Harry Debus is convalescing after a minor operation. He finds it difficult not to fall into a reminiscent mood when he thinks of a certain little nurse.

Charles Kuehl has recovered from his recent sickness of several days, and is back again with a more enticing smile than ever.

Harvey Hoover recently made a flying trip with his family down where the corn grows tall. On the return trip Harvey carried an additional passenger. Anyone desiring a real Bar-b-q sandwich had better look up Hoover's address.

V. McAllister has found his ideal. Out-of-town residents have probably noted the unusual amount of incoming and outgoing Chicago daily mail. Let us know in advance when it is going to happen Mac.

Transit.

Material and Supplies

We are glad to have Edith Newton back after her recent illness.

Say, what would you think of a fellow who was seen at one of the fashionable shops at 63rd. and Halsted looking at women's lingerie and did everything but try it on? We do not know what this young man was looking for but we hope he found it. You might ask Marty Garrity at 78th and Vincennes who the gentleman was.

Tom Garrity's great ambition is to be an athlete. He was around the shop in his track suit last week and announced that he was training. The question is, for what.

R. E. Buckley.

Electrical

Tom Walsh, club director who has been under treatment at the North Shore Health Resort is now at his home in Summit. We are glad to report that Tommy's health is vastly improved.

Paul Brown has left the company to return to high school. He is attending Hyde Park High.

Marshall Rowe is the new office boy.

Douglas Morton has left the company to return to the University of Illinois.

Phil O'Shaughnessy is now working in Substations, at present at 82nd and Halsted Streets.

H. M. Essington.

Legal and Accident Investigation

We are sorry to note that Arthur L. Ketchum, who had been off for some time, now reports that by doctor's order he must not work for a long time.

The Legal Department is "working" top speed. One Superior Court judge made a complete call of all his cases for the year on the 15th of October. Needless to say he did not try his 834 cases. A good many of the other judges have called half way through their calendars. The 1st of January is about the date one might expect a judge to call the cases half way through his calendar. Our lawyers are not sleeping very well, and our investigators have something to "think" about—that is, when they have time to think.

Evelyn Primus, Louise Eland and Dorothy See have been taking advantage of the wonderful fall weather and putting in their noon hour on roller skates. Good pastime girls! We are glad to see you enjoy yourselves, but watch out, don't put any dents in the sidewalks!

Accounting

It is with much regret that we report the death of Miss Frances Straka's mother, who passed away Saturday, September, 12th, 1928. The department sent a very beautiful floral offering to the funeral as an expression of deepest sympathy.

Miss L. Carlson resigned Saturday, October 6th, 1928.

Vacation time is speeding by and there are many who have had their vacations and a few who have not. At this period Mrs. Grace Gunther of the Stenographic Department is away.

Shops and Equipment—North and West

West Shops: We are glad to see our Machine Shop Foreman, Mr. G. F. Smith, back on the job and looking so well, after his illness.

Mildred Habeger has returned from a vacation spent in Cadillac, Michigan, and reports having had a delightful time. We surely enjoyed the apples she sent us from there.

Our bright-faced switchboard operator, Charles (Shorty) Longley, has been transferred to the Armature Room. He looks like a hard working man too, with those nice overalls that almost fit him.

We extend our sympathy to Peter Wilp, carpenter, whose brother John passed away recently, after being operated upon for appendicitis.

The following young men have been added to our office force: Marvin L. Rauscher, switchboard operator, and Frank Norton, order writer.

News Item: Ted Kuta is learning to dance.

John Loris, curtain maker, was married September 30th at Holy Trinity Church. Congratulations and thanks for the cigars. John even supplied the matches.

A baby boy, weighing 10 lbs. 6 oz. arrived at the home of Charles Finlay, painter, on September 28th. Mother and baby getting along fine.

Martin Latro of the Paint Shop, who has been on the sick list since September 26th, is convalescing, and we hope to see him back at work in the near future.

Division: W. Wightman is the proud father of a 9-lb. baby boy. A future heavyweight champion. Thanks for the cigars.

We hope that H. Collas, who underwent an operation a few weeks ago, will soon be well and back to work.

Have you noticed the new wrist watch F. Pelzmann is wearing? We wonder if Lillian presented it to him on his birthday.

J. Volanius, who burned his hands a few weeks ago, is back to work again.

Kedzie: Our foreman, Mr. Wm. Krueger, was seen pushing a big Studebaker car off the tracks at North and California about three weeks ago. Why don't you trade her in for a Buick?

Devon: Steve Prus, repairman, is the proud daddy of a baby girl, born October 12th. Weight 10 pounds. Mother and baby are doing fine. Don't forget the cigars, Steve, old boy!

Limits: Mr. George Chamberlin, our foreman, returned recently from the American Electric Railway Convention, and reports having seen some very interesting exhibits.

Blue Island: A modern hot bed has been constructed under the supervision of Messrs. Hale and Hoey. Our ever-ready carpenter and artist, Cory and Moreland respectively, applied themselves diligently to produce the above. Tom McCrea, our gardener, had a tough job preparing the hot bed, as he claims the automobile has replaced the horse in Chicago.

Ginsbiger, who eats bananas for his health, also practices safety. "Wear your goggles and throw your neels in the garbage can," says he.

Mr. Sickert spent his vacation touring the city, but kept away from the bathing beaches.

Since McCrea has taken to the air, Murphy will not be outdone, but insists that when he goes up he will come down in a parachute, landing on the depot roof. Look out for the flagpole, Jim!

Armitage: Mr. H. Keller, our Day Foreman, is the proud daddy of a baby boy, born October 21st, and weighing 12½ pounds. Mother and baby doing fine. Congratulations! Mr. Keller says the cigars are coming.

Jane V. McCarthy.

South Shops and Car Stations

South Shops: Martin Stanek of the Motor Repair Department suffered two broken ribs in a recent bus collision at Chicago Heights. We hope to see him back on the job real soon.

We were sorry to hear of the injury of A. Nevin, auto mechanic. We hope his arm will be back in shape in the very near future.

Frank Dewitt vacationed with relatives in New York City, and from reports which he brought back, it must be quite a place. We have reasons to believe that at least a part of his time was spent over in New Jersey.

W. Donaldson of the Motor Repair Department suffered a broken collar bone while playing football.

A couple of the boys in the Paint Shop went on a hunting expedition recently and we are told that the results of the hunt were not very satisfactory.

Mrs. Stoffle has returned after an automobile tour to Florida. She reports having had a very enjoyable trip.

Mrs. Willard Carlock (Ethel Johnson) was at the South Shops recently with her baby daughter. We were all glad to see them.

Herman Weilert of the Car Repair Department is at home with a very painful injury to his hand.

Cottage Grove: We congratulate Mr. Gamen upon bringing the the Pull-in-Flag back to the South Division. Now that we have it again, we hope to keep it for several months. The picture of the boys at Cottage Grove will be found on another page.

Burnside: Pete Eckert was seen riding home in a new Hudson the other night. It looks like he will soon be trading in the Essex.

77th Street: R. McClelland and D. Mangan are the proud daddies of baby boys.

Congratulations are now in order for M. Scahill, who is now a married man.

69th Street: Dominick Krivich is the proud daddy of an 8 pound boy. Mother and baby are getting along just fine.

Al Jones in his recent visit to South Bend found out that it is not a curve, but a fair sized city, so we'll take Al's word for that.

A few of the boys took a trip out to 175th Street recently and uprooted some beautiful trees. These combined with flower boxes, will make 69th Street Carhouse a beautiful Garden of Eden next spring.

Archer: We are told that August Wessel, clerk, Archer Depot, was in the trucking business in his younger days. His photo which will be found elsewhere is good evidence.

J. P. McCauley.

With his wife and family he left Chicago in his Hudson automobile, visiting several places of interest in Michigan, then across the border into Canada, stopping at some of the larger cities in the province of Ontario; then to Buffalo, visiting the falls at Niagara. We have a number of trainmen on the sick list, some of whom are: Motormen Tom Kennedy, Andrew G. Swanson, John Hogan, George Miskell and Fred Theile; Conductors Charles Brantigan, and H. Duwick. To each of these trainmen we wish a speedy recovery. A visit to any of them will be appreciated.

The grim reaper has again visited this depot and taken from our midst one of our old time motormen. Patrick McMahon started in the train service of the Chicago City Railway Co., in 1890 and worked faithfully and conscientiously until a few months ago when he was taken sick. He passed away October 9th and was laid to rest in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery. To his widow and immediate family we extend our sympathy.

J. H. Pickin.

Burnside

On Monday, October 22, 1928, Mrs. C. H. Evenson, Superintendent of Transportation, and Mr. Wm. Pasche, Supervisor of Accident Prevention, gave their annual talk in the interest of accident prevention. Credit was given the men at the Burnside Depot in the way of helping to decrease the number of accidents in all classes. The boys at the depot believe these meetings are very helpful, which certainly proved so when a check was finished which showed an exceptionally good attendance.

Conductor E. F. Boehm sailed for Germany October 17, 1928. Eddie has been away from home for more than twenty years and is now returning to put his two feet under the table well filled with real old fashioned sauerkraut and a good big stein of—you say it!

Witnesses! How can we get more of them? For the pride we take in our Division let us see if we can pass the 5 per accident mark. To do this it will be necessary to obtain all we can in each and every accident, no matter how trifling it may be. The more the merrier. So let's go.

Conductor Willie Manley is back again after being confined at the Speedway Hospital. Glad to see you back again, Willie, Old Top.

The past months has witnessed the passing away of three of our oldest motormen, namely, Ed. Zick, L. M. Minnick and Wm. Hall No. 1; also the mother of conductor J. L. Haynes and the daughter of conductor J. E. Donahue No. 1. To the bereaved parents and relatives this division extends its profound sympathy in their bereavement.

C. A. Gylling.

Sixty-Ninth

Conductor P. J. King and wife welcomed a brand new 10-pound baby boy to their home on September 14, 1928. Our congratulations.

It is becoming quite customary for 69th street crews to manage street tie-ups with prompt efficiency and all of their own accord. The latest demonstration was given by Conductors C. M. Maze and F. P. Curran and Motormen D. E. Radke and J. J. Callaghan No. 1, who changed cars at 10:40 a. m., October 15th, at 69th and Wentworth avenue, when a supply car became derailed. The Accident Prevention meetings held recently by Superintendent Evenson and Mr. Wm. Pasche were well attended. The talks were inspiring and will tend to keep everyone from becoming careless.

CLUB SPARKS

Goodbye to Miss Shipley

Miss Gertrude Shipley, formerly of the stenographic force of the executive department, was the guest of honor Thursday night, September 13, at a "round-table" dinner party given at the Tip-Top Inn by her Surface Lines associates. Miss Shipley, who has been with us for five years, resigned from the employ of the company to enter an engineering office in the Straus Building.

The table was attractively decorated with ferns and in the center was a large bouquet of pink roses which were presented to Miss Shipley following the dinner.

Those present were: Misses Mildred Humes, Helen Griffin, Henrietta Fisler, Marie Krausman, Agnes Hume, Estelle Kuntzner, Frances Canny, Ruth Soutter, Florence Pierce and Georgia Smith.

Regret at losing Miss Shipley was expressed and the heartiest best wishes were given her for success in her new position.

Opening Dance Attracts Capacity Attendance

About 400 dancers spent a very enjoyable evening dancing to the music furnished by the famous Red Coats. There were also tempting refreshments which were enjoyed by all present.

M. Garrity, South Shops, Chairman.

The Annual Inaugural Dinner and Dance, given by the Cook County Council, will be held on November 24, 1928. The location is not known at this time.

The Adjutant is having considerable mail returned from the post office due to the fact that members move and leave no forwarding address; and fail to notify him so that he can change address on the Post Mailing List, as well as notify The American Legion Monthly. If you move, please drop a postal card in the mail box, addressed to L. J. Page, 7749 Vincennes avenue, giving your new address so that you will receive your American Legion mail promptly.

Mrs. J. Gillespie, Service Officer of the Auxiliary attached to the post, makes two visits each week to the U. S. Veterans Bureau Hospital at Maywood. All employees of the Surface Lines, whether members of the post or not, are visited by the Auxiliary, who are endeavoring to make their stay as pleasant as possible. It is possible that an ex-service man employe is confined in the hospital and we are not aware of it. If the fact is reported to Comrade McCarthy, Post Service Officer, he will see that Mrs. Gillespie is notified.

It is planned on having a squad, color bearers, color guard and bugler man at the corner of Clark and Jackson boulevard on Armistice Day.

A nervous old lady was traveling on a line where there was a steep grade. She called a porter and asked him if it was safe. To which he replied:

"Certainly, the engine has a powerful vacuum brake."

"But supposing that broke, where should we go?"

"Oh," replied the porter, "that would depend on what sort of life you had been leading."

At Denver some time ago a colored woman presented herself at a registration booth with the intention of enrolling and casting her first vote in the ensuing election.

She gave her name, her address, and her age; and then the clerk of registration asked this question:

"What party do you affiliate with?"

The woman's eyes fairly popped out of her head.

"Does I have to answer dat question?" she demanded.

"That is the law," he told her.

"Den you just scratch my name offen de books," she said. "Ef I got to tell his name I don't want to vote. Why, he ain't got his divorce yit."

When the train stopped at the little Southern station the tourist from the North sauntered out and gazed curiously at a lean animal with scraggy bristles, which was rubbing itself against a scrub oak.

"What do you call that?" he asked a native.

"Razorback hawg, suh."

"What is he doing rubbing himself against that tree?"

"He's stropping hisself, suh, just stropping hisself."

A cub reporter, frequently reprimanded for prolixity and warned to be brief, turned in the following:

"A shocking affair occurred last night. Sir Edward Hopeless, a guest at Lady Panmore's ball, complained of feeling ill, took a highball, his hat, his coat, his departure, no notice of his friends, a taxi, a pistol from his pocket and finally his life. Nice chap. Regrets and all that."

A man went into a Scotchman's drug store and ordered 15c worth of quinine. A second later the man screamed, "Help, I'm poisoned!"

The Scotchman looked at the box and said: "You're right, it's strychnine, that'll be 10 cents extra. Pay me quick, laddie, it works fast!"

Passer-by: "Dear me, my good man, did you fall down the steps?"

Inebriate: "Yes, but it's all right. I was goin' down anyway."

"Yes," admitted the plumber, "and those new garters bother me some, too."

Sonny: "Maw's dragging Paw's pants over the floor."

Sonny: "I know, but Paw's in 'em."

"Say, Saul, you ought to buck up and show your wife who's running things at your house."

"There's no use—she knows."

In order not to show anything brutal on the screen, most movies end just as the couple are about to be married.
