

RIDE THE TROLLEYS

the ILLINOIS RAILWAY MUSEUM

The Museum is open on weekends year-round. Car operation starts around Memorial Day and continues into November (weekends and holidays only). There is a fare asked for a ride, to defray the expense of operation. There is no parking fee, entrance fee, or other charge of any kind. Private charter trips may be arranged in advance.

37 TROLLEY CARS

2 STEAM ENGINES

Various Steam Cars

The Museum is located 20 miles northwest of Elgin, Illinois. From Chicago, leave the Northwest Tollroad at the Marengo interchange and continue westward on route 20 to the Union Road. Drive straight thru Union to the end of the road ($\frac{1}{2}$ mile east of town), turn right and the Museum's parking lot is across the tracks.
