

The Streetcar Ride You've Been Waiting For Chicago Sun. Dec. 18

A 50-mile ride through the Loop and over all remaining car lines.

Two Chartered Cars!

One of the three remaining red "Pullman" cars, standby of Chicago surface transportation for decades, is being rehabilitated for this trip. It's next stop will be in a museum. A modern PCC type car will be its running mate for the trip.

Trip starts 9:30 a. m. from carbarns, 77th and Vincennes, noon lunch stop at Howard St., back at 5:00 p. m.

Fare, $5 (Does not include lunch)
