

We're getting around more.
So you can get around better.

RTA's Route 79. The new Clearing Industrial District and Ford City Bus.

Clearing Industrial District.

Whether you live in Chicago or the suburbs, the 79 bus is a great way to get to work at the Clearing Industrial District. Buses stop near the Clearing Industrial Plants as early as 6:17 a.m. And you can travel from a point near your home to work for only 50 cents each way. You simply can't beat the bus for economy.

Ford City and Scottsdale Shopping Center. Route 79 is a great bus for shopping, too. It makes a loop into Ford City, the biggest shopping center in the city of Chicago. There you can shop at Wieboldt's, Montgomery Ward, JC Penney and over 155 other fine stores. This route also goes to Scottsdale Shopping Center, where you can shop at Goldblatt's and many other excellent stores.

Around the Clock Western To Lakefront Service. You can travel along 79th Street between the lake and Western Avenue around the clock. The bus runs at very frequent intervals during the day with 30-minute owl service.

RTA Travel Information is a 24 hour facility. For better service, call during the off-peak hours.
