Service Improvements for the Convenience of Diversey Avenue Riders

- (1) Through Routing from Harlem Avenue to the Loop.
- (2) Supplemental Rush Hour Buses Between Narragansett Avenue and Logan Square "L"-Subway Terminal.

Effective June 19, 1955

CHICAGO TRANSIT
AUTHORITY

NEW THROUGH ROUTE

Effective Sunday, June 19, 1955, the Diversey Avenue motor bus route and the Diversey Avenue trolley bus route are being consolidated into a single motor bus route operating between Harlem Avenue and Downtown Chicago.

THE ROUTING

Across town the new through route operates in Diversey Avenue between Harlem Avenue and Sheridan Road. It enters and leaves the Loop by way of Sheridan Road, Stockton Drive, Lake Shore Drive and Michigan Avenue. The Loop terminal at all hours is Adams and Michigan. Outbound the buses go west in Adams to Wabash, north to Lake, east to Michigan, and then on to Harlem and Diversey over the same route the buses use in traveling to the Loop. The present motor bus service in Wrightwood Avenue - Logan Boulevard, between Pulaski Road and Diversey Avenue, is being discontinued.

SERVICE FREQUENCY

In the morning rush, through buses are scheduled four minutes apart. The afternoon rush interval is three minutes. Mid-day and evening service intervals are seven minutes, and eight to nine minutes, respectively. In the section of Diversey Avenue where both the Through Route and Supplemental Service buses operate, the scheduled service frequency in rush hours is approximately two minutes.

THE "WHY AND WHEREFORE"

Construction is soon to get underway on a sewer project in Wrightwood Avenue. Thus, discontinuance of the present motor bus service in the Wrightwood-Logan Boulevard section clears the way for the sewer project. Furthermore, groups of riders, who object to the present necessity of using both the trolley bus route and the motor bus route to complete their trips, have been urging establishment of the through route.

SUPPLEMENTAL
RUSH HOURS SERVICE

Effective Monday, June 21, 1955, the special rush hours motor bus service, supplementing the new Diversey Avenue through route, is being provided on weekdays, operating between Narragansett Avenue and Diversey Avenue, the west terminal, and the Milwaukee Avenue "L"-Subway terminal at Kedzie Avenue and Logan Square.

THIRTY-MINUTE TIME SAVING

Operating three miles farther west than the Diversey Avenue motor bus route which presently serves the "L"-Subway terminal at Logan Square, this special supplemental rush hours service extends to many more persons the very substantial time-saving advantages of combination use of the Diversey Avenue and Milwaukee Avenue "L"-Subway services. For persons traveling between points west of Pulaski Road and points in or near the loop, as much as thirty minutes per one-way trip may be saved, compared with riding the entire distance by bus.

THE SCHEDULE

Eastbound in the morning rush period, the first supplemental service bus leaves the Diversey-Narragansett terminal at 6:30 A.M., and the last at 8:51 A.M. In the evening rush period, the first westbound supplemental service bus leaves the Logan Square "L"-Subway terminal at 3:29 P.M., and the last at 6:16 P.M.
