

cta Culture Buses

Enjoy a Ride and a Half
On CTA Culture Buses and
Chicago Motor Coach Company
Double-Deckers

All 3 Routes Converge at... the Art Institute of Chicago ■

Displays outstanding works in all media from ancient times to the present. Highlights include American and European fine and decorative arts, the Chagall stained glass windows, and renowned Impressionist collections. Open Sundays and holidays: noon to 5 p.m. Suggested fee: $5.00 adults; $2.50 senior citizens, students and children. Michigan/Adams

Enjoy a lively guided tour!

Ride in picture-windowed, air-conditioned buses to the city's major cultural attractions while enjoying a commentator's guided tour.

Frequent service on all 3 routes!

Three routes serving the North, South and West Sides begin and end at the Art Institute of Chicago. You can also board at any Culture Bus stop.

Sundays and Holidays May 7 through Sept. 24

- South — Every 30 minutes, 10:30—4:30
(round trip 1 hour, 15 min.)
- North — Every 30 minutes, 10:55—4:55
(round trip 1 hour, 10 min.)
- West — Every 30 minutes, 10:45—4:15
(round trip 1 hour, 40 min.)

■ transfer point between Culture Buses and Double-Deckers

North

1 Express-Ways Children's Museum

Scaled-down versions of Sears Tower and other Chicago buildings are part of an environment created by this museum so children can experience urban life at their own level. Now at North Pier Chicago, 435 E. Illinois St. Open Sundays: 10:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Admission: $3 adults; $2 children (pre-school to 12). Illinois/Peshtigo; 11:02—5:02

2 Navy Pier

Art expositions, boat shows, ethnic festivals and other special events are held periodically at Navy Pier, which was built in 1916 as a municipal recreational facility. Opening hours and admission prices vary with events. For information call 744-4219. Grand/Streeter Dr.; 11:03—5:03

3 The Museum of Contemporary Art

This modern museum offers exhibits of paintings, sculpture, drawings, photography and decorative arts of the 20th century, with related lectures and films. Free gallery talk at 1 and 3 p.m. Open Sundays: noon to 5 p.m. Suggested fee: $4 adults; $2 senior citizens, students and children (6 to 16). Ontario/Fairbanks; 11:08—5:08

4 Chicago Water Tower "Here's Chicago" ★ Water Tower Place John Hancock Center ★

North Michigan Avenue's most popular shopping center is named after the Chicago Water Tower, symbol of the city's survival and reconstruction after the Great Fire of 1871. The pumping station across the street is the home of the Visitor Information Center and of "Here's Chicago," a film and slide show spectacular about the city. Open Sundays and holidays: 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Standard admission for "Here's Chicago": $4.75 adults; $3.50 seniors and students; $2.50 children (12 and under). Water Tower Place is open Sundays and holidays, noon to 5 p.m. At nearby John Hancock Center, visitors to the 94th floor observatory can get a breathtaking view of Chicago's lake shore. Open: 9 a.m. to midnight. Standard admission: $3.50 adults; $2 senior citizens and children (5 to 15). Michigan/Pearson; northbound 11:13—5:13, southbound 11:42—5:42

5 Rush Street

State/Elm; 11:19—5:19

6 Old Town

This area along North Wells Street has been revitalized with new restaurants, art galleries, gift shops, and clothing stores, many in restored Victorian-era buildings. Wells/North; 11:24—5:24

7 The Chicago Historical Society

Chicago's past is dramatically chronicled in dioramas, period room settings and displays of artifacts from every generation of settlement in the area. Demonstrations of pioneer crafts and skills are given by volunteers dressed in authentic costumes. Open Sundays: noon to 5 p.m.; holidays: 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Admission: $1.50 adults; 50 cents senior citizens and children (6 to 17). Clark/North; 11:26—5:26

8 The Chicago Academy of Sciences

Walk-through exhibits, showing the natural habitat of the Chicago area, introduce visitors to natural history, with emphasis on the Great Lakes region. Open: 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. Admission: $1 adults; 50 cents senior citizens and children (6 to 17). Through Sept. 4 enjoy the "Wild and Woolly" special exhibit of life-sized robotic, prehistoric mammals and dinosaurs. Standard admission: $4 adults; $2.50 seniors and children. ★ Clark/Armitage; 11:29—3:29

9 Lincoln Park Zoo and Conservatory

Completely renovated, natural-looking habitats make viewing more educational. The conservatory displays exotic plants from around the world and is the setting for four major seasonal flower shows. Zoo and conservatory open: 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission free. Elephant training, 1 p.m.; sea lion feeding, 2 p.m.; Great Apes feeding, 3 p.m. Lincoln Park West/Webster Dr.; 11:31—5:31

10 Fullerton Beach

Fullerton Dr./Cannon Dr.; 11:33—5:33

11 The International Museum of Surgical Science

Telling the story of healing from ancient times to the present, this museum offers 32 rooms of exhibits sponsored by the International College of Surgeons. Open Sundays: 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission free. 1524 N. Lake Shore Dr.; 11:36—5:36

12 Chicago Water Tower "Here's Chicago" ★ Water Tower Place John Hancock Center ★

Michigan/Pearson; southbound, 11:42—5:42; see 3rd Stop

13 Terra Museum of American Art

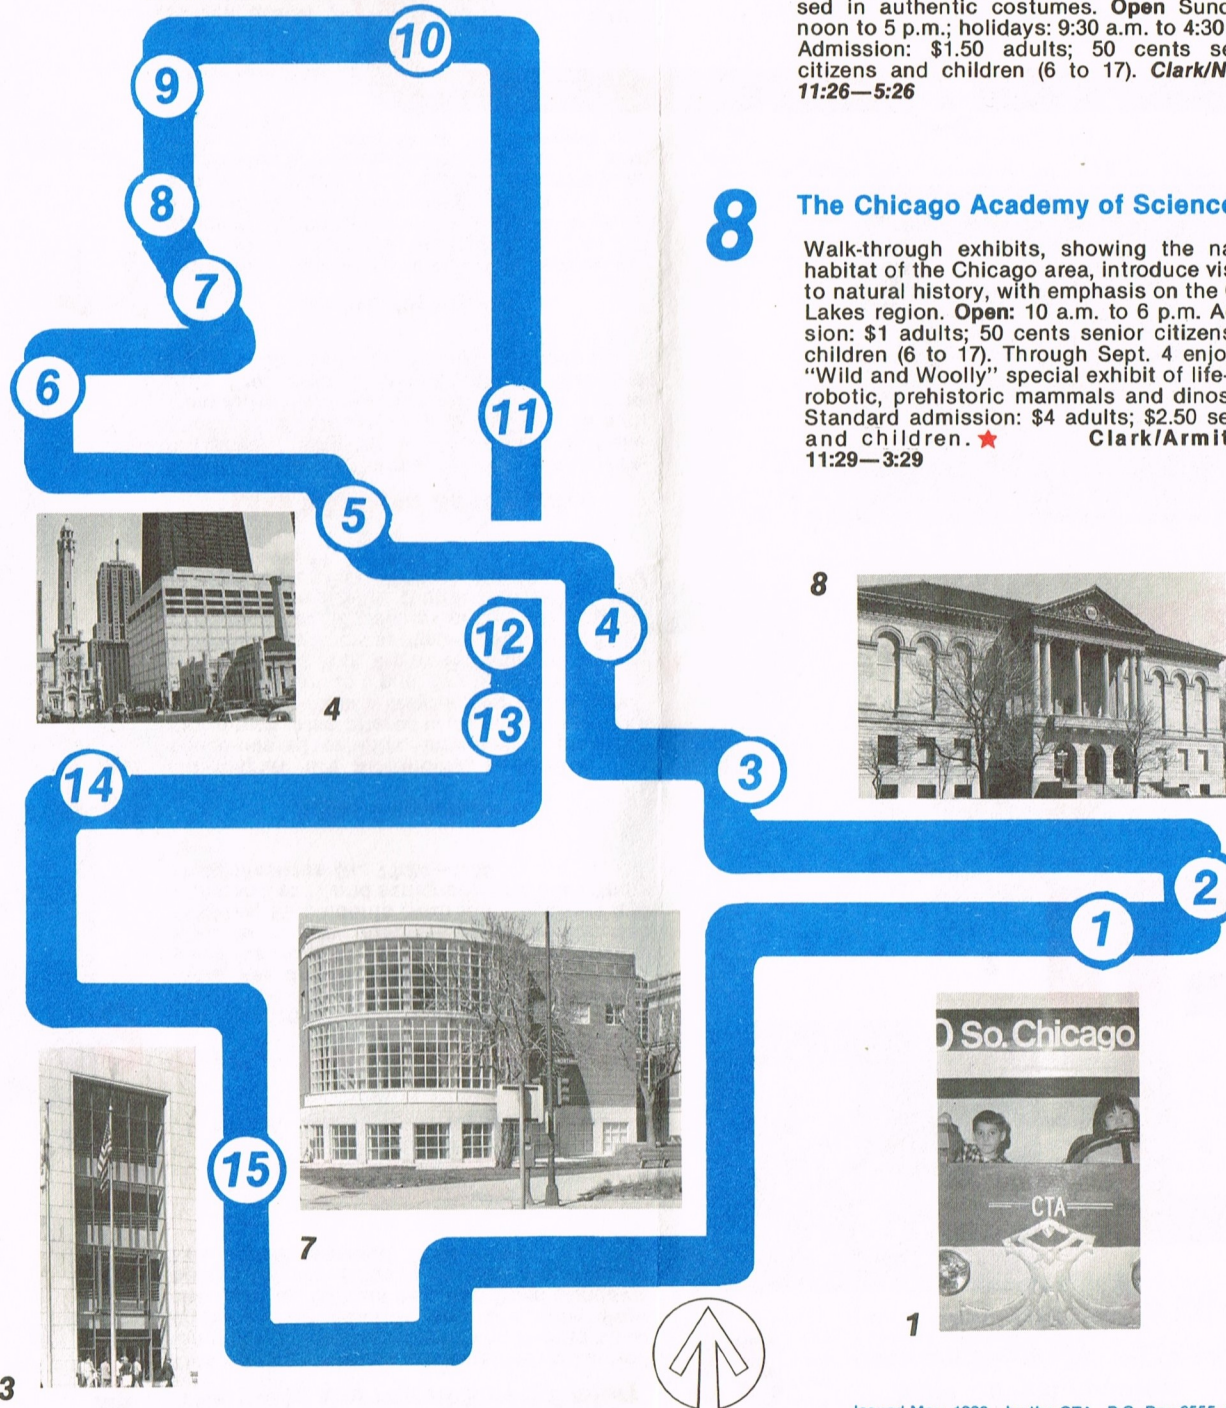

Paintings by American artists from three centuries are on display in this new museum, which was established by art connoisseur Daniel J. Terra from his own collection of over 800 works. Open Sundays and holidays: noon to 5 p.m. Admission: $4 adults; $2.50 seniors and students; children 12 and under free. First Sunday of each month free through August. Michigan/Erie; 11:44—5:44

14 The Peace Museum

Issues of war and peace are presented through artwork, photos and other material in an effort to promote peace as a necessity for human survival. Open Sundays: noon to 5 p.m. Admission: $2 adults; 50 cents seniors, students and children (under 12). Erie/Hudson; 11:51—5:51

15 Civic Center

Clark/Randolph; 11:57—5:57

All tours begin and end at the Art Institute

West

1 See all Chicagoland and parts of four states from the 103rd floor Skydeck of the world's tallest building. Enjoy the multimedia presentation in the visitors' center before you ascend. Open: 9 a.m. to 11:30 p.m. Standard admission: $3.75 adults; $3 senior citizens and military in uniform; $2.25 children (5 to 15). Wacker/Adams; 10:49—4:19

This stop also serves Union Station (one block west).

2 Museum of Holography/Chicago
The Museum of Holography/Chicago features exhibits of three-dimensional holographic pictures, which reflect a unique blend of artistic imagination and high technology. Besides their artistic applications, holograms are also used on credit cards and other documents as a security device to foil counterfeiting. Open Sundays and holidays: 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission: $2.50. Children under 6 free. Washington/May; 10:57—4:27

3 Polish Museum of America
The contributions of Poles and Polish-Americans in science, technology, the arts and political freedom are shown in this museum. Open Sundays and holidays: noon to 5 p.m. Admission free. Milwaukee/Augusta Blvd; 11:04—4:34

4 Holy Trinity Orthodox Cathedral
This Byzantine-style Louis Sullivan masterpiece was built in 1903 with funds from Czar Nicholas II and members of Chicago's Russian community. Open for tours first and third Sundays of each month: noon to 4:30 p.m. Contributions appreciated. Leavitt/Division; 11:10—4:40

5 Ukrainian Village/ Ukrainian Institute of Modern Art
Permanent and revolving exhibits of modern paintings and art objects by artists of Ukrainian descent and others are on display. Open Sundays: 11:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Suggested donation: $2 adults; $1 seniors, students and children (12 to 18). Chicago/Oakley; 11:14—4:44

6 The Ukrainian National Museum
National costumes, Easter eggs, wood and metal carvings, embroideries, and other samples of Ukrainian folk art are exhibited along with state documents and a library with over 10,000 books. Open Sundays: noon to 4 p.m. Admission $1 adults; 50 cents students and children. Chicago/Campbell; 11:15—4:45

7 Garfield Park Conservatory
Among the 5,000 species and varieties of plants and flowers displayed in this turn-of-the-century conservatory are ferns grown throughout the world, and nearly all the plants of tropical regions. Open: 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission free. Central Park Blvd/Lake; 11:30—5:00

8 Mexican Fine Arts Center Museum
Paintings, sculpture and other works by artists of Latin American descent are on display in this renovated Park District building that has become a center for Mexican culture in Chicago. Open Sundays: 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission free. 19th/Wolcott; 11:44—5:14

9 Jackson Boulevard Historic District
Some prominent Chicago families once lived in these century-old Victorian homes. Restored in recent years, the entire block is now a landmark. (For tour information, call 782-1776.) Jackson Blvd/Lafin; 11:53—5:23

10 Greektown
Chicago's best Greek restaurants, bakeries and shops moved north on Halsted between Adams and Van Buren Streets when the original Greek community was displaced by the Chicago campus of the University of Illinois just to the south. Most of these establishments are open on Sundays to welcome Culture Bus riders. Halsted/Van Buren; 11:57—5:27

11 Jane Addams Hull-House
Established by Jane Addams in 1889, Hull-House was a settlement house offering programs of education, social welfare and neighborhood activities, particularly for immigrant families. Hull-House has been restored as a museum documenting the life and work of Jane Addams. Open Sundays: noon to 5 p.m. Admission free. Halsted/Polk; 11:58—5:28

12 Maxwell Street Market
Halsted/Maxwell; 12:03—5:33

13 Chinatown
Some 5,000 Chinese-Americans live in this traditional community, which offers authentic Chinese restaurants, food and gift shops. Cermak/Wentworth; 12:10—5:40

14 Museum of Broadcast Communications
Steve Allen, Milton Berle and other veteran stars have appeared at this museum to share nostalgic moments in radio and television broadcasting history that are preserved on tapes available for playing by visitors. Photo exhibits, lectures and seminars at various times complement the retrospective screenings that focus on quality programming. Open Sundays: noon to 5 p.m. Suggested donation: $3 adults; $2 students; $1 senior citizens and children (under 13). Polk/Wells; 12:17—5:47

15 Printers Row Printing Museum
Located in the heart of Chicago's original printing district at 731 S. Plymouth Ct., this museum features artifacts used in 19th Century printing. Museum volunteers print stationery and other specialized items to order. Open Sundays: 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Admission free. Dearborn/Polk; 12:19—5:49

All tours begin and end at the Art Institute

South

1

Spertus Museum of Judaica

Presents changing exhibits and a collection of ceremonial objects of gold, silver, bronze and ivory; sculpture, paintings, textiles, scrolls and other artifacts, relating to Jewish culture. New Ann C. Field Gallery displays works by contemporary Jewish artists. Open Sundays: 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission: $3.50 adults; $2 senior citizens, students and children. Michigan/Balbo; 10:34—4:34

2

Prairie Avenue Historic District ★

Restored with period furnishings, the Henry B. Clarke House, built in 1836, and Glessner House, (1886), are Chicago's only house museums open for tours. Sunday tours: begin hourly 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Single house tour: $4 adults; $2 senior citizens and students; children under 12 free. Both houses: $6 adults; $4 others. 18th/Prairie; 10:40—4:40

3

McCormick Place-On-The-Lake

Lake Shore Dr./23rd; 10:44—4:44

4

The Museum of Science and Industry

This outstanding "hands-on" museum presents the latest developments in science, industry and technology. Newly featured is the Henry Crown Space Center, with its Omnimax Theater, where films shown on a domed screen give viewers the perspective of a participant in the action. Museum hours: 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. Admission free. Omnimax Theater shows 10:00 a.m. to 4:40 p.m. Theater admission: $4 adults; $2.50 seniors and children (12 or under). Advanced ticket purchase recommended. Lake Shore Dr./57th Dr.; southbound, 10:55—4:55, northbound, 11:15—5:15

5

Oriental Institute

The Oriental Institute displays artifacts of art, architecture, religion and everyday life of Egypt and the Ancient Near East. Open Sundays and holidays: noon to 4 p.m. Admission free. Free documentary films at 2 p.m. 58th/University; 11:01—5:01

6

The DuSable Museum of African American History

This museum features paintings, sculpture, artifacts, and other works documenting the history and culture of the African-American. Open Sundays and holidays: noon to 5 p.m. Admission donation: $2 adults; $1 seniors and students; 50 cents children (12 and under). Cottage Grove/57th; 11:05—5:05

7

The David and Alfred Smart Gallery

This gallery presents a diversified collection ranging from classical Greek and Roman art to contemporary painting and sculpture. Four changing exhibitions per year. Open Sundays: noon to 4 p.m. (Closed holidays.) Admission free. 55th/Greenwood; 11:08—5:08

8

The Museum of Science and Industry

Northbound, 11:15—5:15; see 4th Stop

9

The Field Museum of Natural History

Discover the wonders of the world, relive prehistoric cultures, visit dinosaurs and mummies, see dazzling jewels and gems, and explore the world of plants and animals. Open: 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission: $3 adults; $10 families; $2 students (with identification) and children 2 to 17 and senior citizens. Lake Shore Dr./McFetridge Dr.; 11:30—5:30

10

Adler Planetarium

On display are astronomy, navigation and space-related exhibits, including a piece of moon rock. Also offered is an audio-visual Sky Show called "Milky Way: Island of Mystery." Open: 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. Sky Shows at 11 a.m. and at 1, 2, 3 and 4 p.m. Planetarium admission free. Sky Show admission: $3 adults; $1.50 children (6 to 17); senior citizens with identification free. (Children under 6 admitted only to 10 a.m. Sky Show.) Solidarity Dr./Planetarium; 11:35—5:35

11

Shedd Aquarium

More than fresh and salt water fish are on exhibit. At a coral reef exhibit with over 50 species in 90,000 gallons of water, a diver gives a commentary while feeding the fish — at 11 a.m. and at 2 and 3 p.m. Open: 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Admission: $3 adults; $2 children (6 to 17) and senior citizens. Lake Shore Dr./Roosevelt Dr.; 11:38—5:38

12

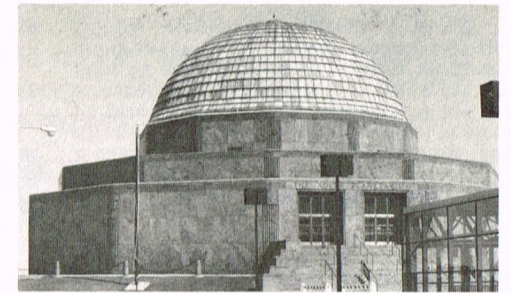

Buckingham Fountain

Balbo Dr./Columbus Dr.; 11:40—5:40

All tours begin and end at the Art Institute

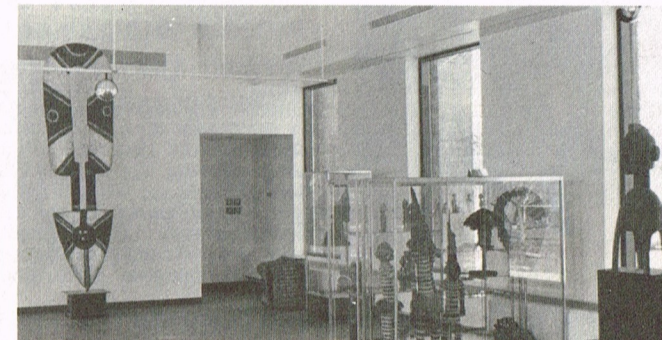

2

10

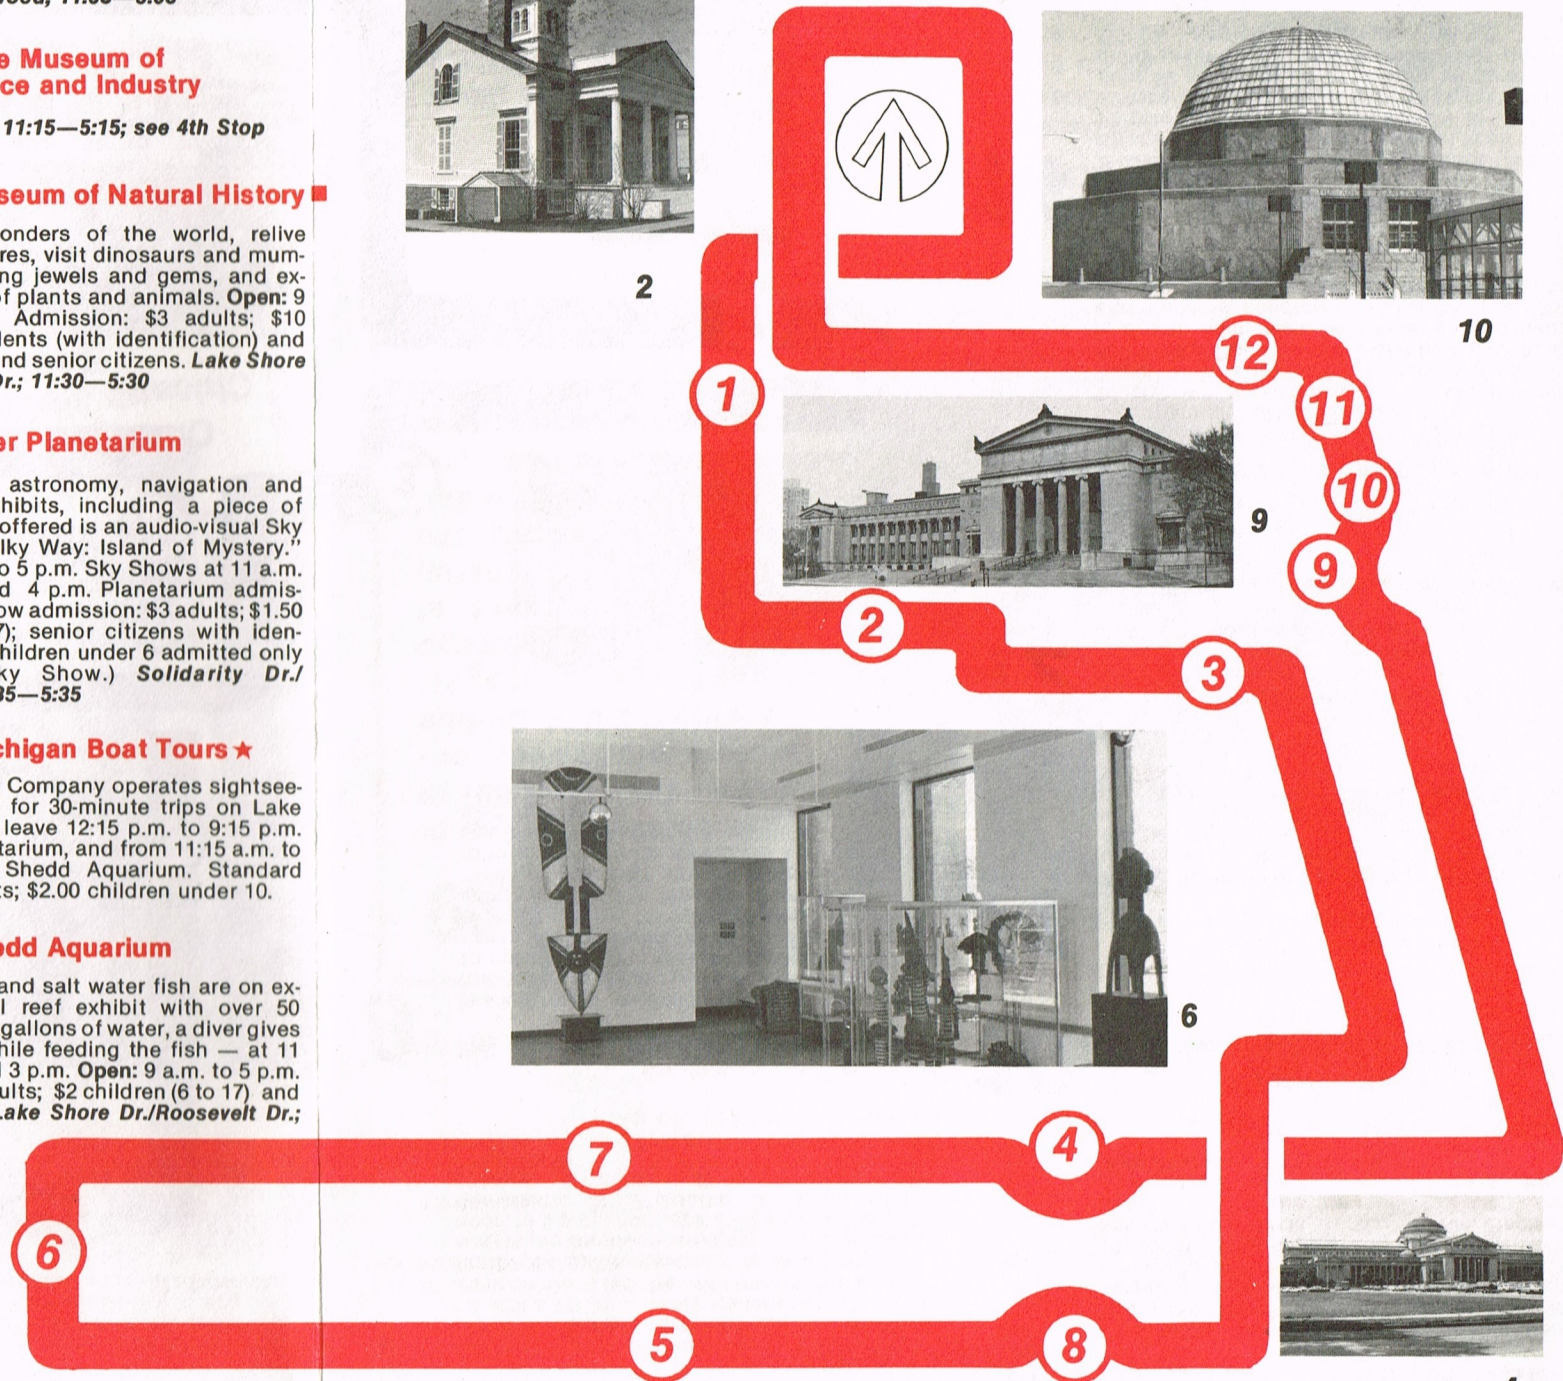

9

6

4

Culture Bus Fares

The Culture Bus Supertransfer allows unlimited riding on all Culture Buses, CTA buses/trains, and suburban buses all day and evening. Exact fare required; dollar bills are accepted.

The cash fare is $2.50 for adults and $1.25 for seniors (65 and older with proof of age), children (7 thru 11), disabled (with Special Users Travel Card). Children, 6 or under, free with adult.

With a Supertransfer, adults pay 75 cents, and seniors/children/disabled pay 40 cents. Operator will punch your Supertransfer for Culture Bus use.

With a standard transfer or Monthly Pass, adults pay $1.25, and seniors/children/disabled pay 60 cents; obtain Culture Bus Supertransfer from operator.

Discounts at Several Locations!

Attractions marked with a ★ offer discounts upon presentation of a Culture Bus Supertransfer. Admission prices/times subject to change.

For travel information phone:

Chicago: 836-7000 Suburbs: 1-800-972-7000 (toll free)

New for 1989

Tour Chicago On Top or Below Decks. Ride in picture-windowed, air-conditioned CTA Culture Buses or Open-air Double-Decker Chicago Motor Coach buses at half fare when transferring from one to the other. You'll broaden your horizons when you see Chicago from another point of view.

Double-Decker Bus Fares

Adults: $5.00; senior citizens $4.00; children under 12 $2.00.

Half-Fare Transfer Regulations

By showing a CTA Culture Bus Supertransfer to Chicago Motor Coach Company bus operators, adults pay $2.50, senior citizens $2.00, and children under 12 $1.00 to ride CMC Double-decker buses.

By showing a Chicago Motor Coach Company ticket to CTA Culture Bus operators, adults pay $1.25, and senior citizens and children 60 cents to ride CTA Culture Buses.

Half-fare rate on CTA Culture Buses valid only on date shown on Chicago Motor Coach Company ticket. Transfer from Culture Buses to Double-Deckers valid for half-fare rate through Friday of the following week, but only on CMC Double-Deckers.