Riding The Train

Routing

Orange Line trains run every day between Midway Airport, the city's Southwest Side, and downtown Chicago.

In the downtown area, trains run clockwise on the Loop Elevated, above Van Buren, Wells, Lake, and Wabash.

Schedules

Trains run frequently:

- every 5 to 10 minutes in weekday rush hours.
- every 10 minutes most other times.
- every 15 minutes early mornings and late evenings.

Daily Service Hours – Including Holidays
	First Train	Last Train
From Midway	3:55 a.m.	12:51 a.m.
From Downtown (Library Station)	4:22 a.m.	1:18 a.m.

It's about a 30-minute trip from Midway to Downtown. Trains will make all stops along the route.

A timetable is available at Orange Line stations or by calling 836-7000 (from any Chicago/suburban area code).

When Orange Line trains are not running, use the #62 Archer & bus between Downtown (board south on State Street) and the Southwest Side.

Signage and Announcements

At the stations, platform signs that are overhead and on the columns tell you which way the trains are going.

Trains south to Midway

Train car signs show the destination, either "Loop" or "Midway":

At stations where you can change trains, you'll see signs such as:

Change Trains Here For RED LINE

All station stops and train connections are announced on the train.

Parking (P)

Daily parking available for $1.50 at:

Halsted/Archer	38	spaces
• 35th/Archer	70	spaces
• Western/49th
Kedzie/48th	.160	spaces
Pulaski/51st	.390	spaces

Daily parking available at Midway for $1.75 - 299 spaces.

Spaces at all stations are numbered. Pay by putting coins or dollar bills into the numbered slot boxes near the parking lot or the station entrance. Overnight parking is not permitted.

Bus Connections

You can connect to over 60 CTA and Pace (suburban) buses from the Orange Line. These bus lines serve much of Chicago and the Southwest suburbs. Get a CTA Bus & Rail Map or Downtown Transit Sightseeing Guide from station Customer Assistants or by calling (312) 836-7000 (from any Chicago/suburban area code).

At Midway Airport

The station is connected to the Airport by a walkway, with escalators, elevators, and a moving sidewalk. It's about a 10-minute walk to the terminal. When you're coming from the airport, follow these overhead signs:

Accessibility &

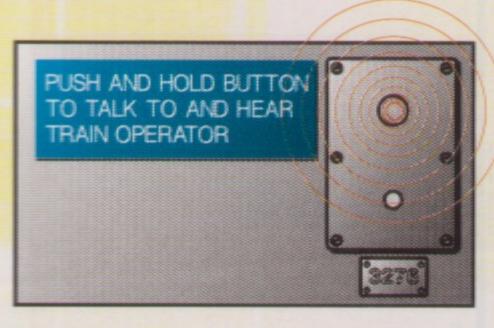

All Orange Line stations between Midway and Roosevelt are accessible with an elevator.

In the Loop, Library-State/Van Buren, Washington/ Wells, and Clark/Lake stations have elevators.

All trains are accessible. At one end of each car, a seat can be folded up so a wheelchair or other mobility device can be secured.

Security

The CTA has a strong commitment to customer security. In addition to local police, who patrol our buses and trains, we contract with security firms to promote safety on our rail system. If you need to communicate directly with CTA personnel:

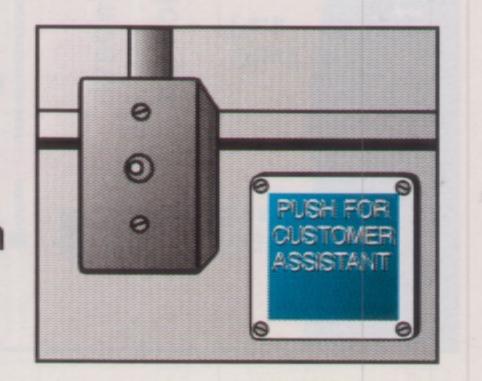

On the train, there is a two-way communication system for use in emergencies and by customers with disabilities. This is located near one doorway of each car, next to a blue sign. This system allows you to communicate with the train operator immediately. Push the button to talk.

At the station,

Customer Assistant Call Buttons are located near the turnstiles and on the platform. Push the button to call for assistance at

Paying Your Fare

Transit Cards

Full-fare cards are available from vending machines at CTA rail stations, Jewel, Dominick's and select Cub Foods stores, Navy Pier, and CTA's website at www.transitchicago.com. Get reduced-fare cards (restrictions apply) at Currency Exchanges, Jewel, Dominick's and select Cub Foods stores. Both cards deduct fares and transfers on CTA and Pace suburban buses, and both are rechargable.

Fares deducted as shown:	Full	Reduced
One ride	$1.50	$.75
1st transfer in 2 hours	$.30	$.15
2nd transfer in 2 hours	FREE	FREE

To Buy a Full-Fare Card

Put in the exact amount you want, $1.50 to $91. (For every $10 put in, you get $1 of extra value). Press "Vend" — the card will come out on the lower right-hand side of the Transit Card vending machine.

To Use a Card or Pass

Insert and remove it from turnstile or bus farecard machine. Up to 7 full-fare riders can share the card (insert separately). Recharge the card for as little as 5¢, at any Transit Card vending machine at CTA rail stations.

Cash Fares

$1.50 for full-fare riders and 75¢ for reduced-fare riders (children 7-11, elementary & high school students, seniors & riders with disabilities with CTA/RTA Permit). When you pay your cash fare in the turnstile, you can buy a transfer card for two more rides in two hours on CTA or Pace (30¢ full fare and 15¢ reduced fare).

Reduced-fare riders must see the station Customer Assistant for cash or Transit Card entry.

Transferring Between Trains

Connections between CTA trains are free. However, to connect between the Orange Line and Red Line subway trains at State/Lake, you must use a Transit Card, Pass, or Permit when you are leaving one station and entering another. No transfer charge or use will be deducted when changing trains.

Passes (For Visitor Passes, See Back Cover)

Unlimited rides on CTA and Pace with our 1 Day Fun Pass, 7 Day, 30 Day, and 30 Day Reduced-Fare (1 Day Fun Pass and 7 Day Pass valid only on CTA). Good for consecutive days from the time of first use. They're available at Currency Exchanges, Jewel, Dominick's and select Cub Foods stores, and CTA's website: www.transitchicago.com.

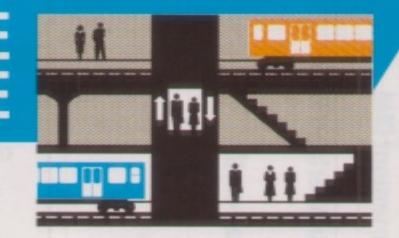

Train Connections

To Connect Free To:

Leave Orange Line Train At:
