are a great way for groups

Welcome!

The Chicago Transit Authority's (CTA) network of rail lines and bus routes serving Chicago and 40 suburban communities is ideally suited to move groups of almost any size.

CTA serves museums, shopping centers, hotels, convention centers, restaurants, sporting events and just about any place your group wants to go.

It's easy to order your Visitor Passes or Transit Cards in advance and we'll send free maps and brochures upon request. A group sales representative is available to help you plan your trip.

Connect With Us

CTA provides frequent and convenient connections to O'Hare and Midway airports, intercity and commuter trains at Union, Ogilvie, LaSalle Street and Millennium stations, and long-distance buses at the Greyhound Terminal.

O'Hare Airport

is only 45-50 minutes from downtown on the CTA Blue Line.

Midway Airport

is only 30-35 minutes from downtown on the CTA Orange Line.

Intercity Rail and Bus

Convenient CTA service is available for groups arriving on Amtrak trains at Union Station or by bus at the Greyhound terminal. Several bus routes serve both facilities and Blue Line trains stop nearby.

Charter an 'L' train

Nothing says Chicago more than our famous 'L' trains. Rent one for four or more hours for that special event. Use a train to see Chicago as only Chicagoans see it, from our 222 mile rail network. We welcome food and non-alcoholic beverage service that you arrange. For more information, call CTA Rail Operations at 312-681-4520.

Planning Your Trip

CTA has several tools to help you find the best route to your destination.

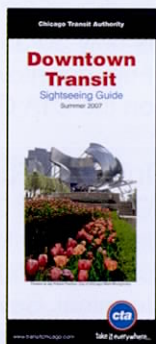

Use the Trip Planner

Go to transitchicago.com and use the Trip Planner. The Trip Planner will recommend which routes to use, including departure and arrival times and where to make connections. Large groups should contact a group sales representative (see below) for planning assistance and special arrangements.
